THURSDAY FEBRUARY 15th 2024 JAIPUR – AMER - JAIPUR

- ❖ Breakfast at hotel
- ❖ We will be driven just outside Jaipur to the ancient capital of Amber to see the fabulous Amber Fort. Maharaja Mansingh, Mughal Emperor Akbar's most successful General, started the construction of Amber Fort in the 17th century. Before the City Palace was constructed in Jaipur, Amber was the seat of power. A Jeep will spare you the trouble of reaching up to the fortress. Once on top, stroll through the sprawling complex of courtyards and halls. Many of the rooms have delightful wall paintings, with precious stones and mirrors inlaid in the walls.

❖ Most fascinating, perhaps, is the Sheesh Mahal (hall of mirrors) where a single lamplight is reflected in the many mirrors, lighting up the room. Come back to your hotel after your excursion.

❖ Later you will be proceed for city tour of Jaipur. Among the highlights to be seen while touring Jaipur include the City Palace, which is an overwhelming complex of exquisite palaces, gardens and courtyards, decorative art and carved doorways. The palace museum houses collections of rare manuscripts, armoury, costumes, carpets and miniature paintings.

❖ Walk to the adjacent Jantar Mantar or Astronomical Observatory made by the Maharaja of Jaipur, built in 1726 and is one of the five such astronomical wonders built by Sawai Jai Singh and makes accurate predictions even to this day. You will stop and see the 'Palace of Winds', otherwise known as Hawa Mahal. It is really an elaborate facade behind which the ladies of the court used to watch the daily goings on in the street below. It is extremely intricate in its pink sandstone carving. The cool wind blows through its facade of windows and latticed screens through which the queens of the court once viewed the streets of the city. You will also have the opportunity to wander about the local markets.

❖ Return to hotel after the sightseeing tour.

- ❖ We continue to AGRA, Two great Mughals, Akbar and Shah Jahan, transformed the small village of Agra into the second capital of the Mughal Empire, giving it the name Dar-ul-Khilafat (Emperor's seat). Nowadays, a person who visits Agra will be able to discover endless contrasts when looking at the red stone and white marble buildings.

- ❖ Arrive and transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

AGRA, the city known for its famous monument of love – the TAJ MAHAL, the most famous monument in India. It is located on the west bank of the Yamuna River, in one of the great plains of northern India. The architectural splendor of the city is reflected in its medieval monuments that were built by the Mughals who ruled India for more than 300 years.

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 17th 2024 AGRA (TAJ MAHAL & AGRA FORT)

- ❖ Breakfast at the hotel.
- ❖ Early Morning we will visit TAJ MAHAL -- In the 16th and 17th centuries, at the time of the Mughals, Agra was the capital of India. The Taj Mahal, one of the 7 Wonders of the World, built in white marble by Emperor Shah Jahan as a mausoleum for his Queen Mumtaz Mahal, is a universal symbol of love (Taj Mahal is closed on Fridays). Later we will visit the Agra Fort.

❖ Agra Fort-- Construction was originally started by Emperor Akbar in 1565, but his son, Jahangir, and grandson, Shah Jahan, later made additions. It houses the Dewan-e-Khas and Dewan-e-Aam (Halls of Private and Public Audience). Its walls and palaces are a silent witness to the rise and fall of the Imperial Mughal Empire and feature a variety of ingenious Islamic inspired devices (some decorative, some more practical) within the fabric of the buildings.

❖ In the afternoon visit popularly known as Baby Taj or Little Taj Mahal, the Itimad-ud-Daulah Mausoleum, is another of the great references that Agra offers us. Then continue to visit the impressive Mehtab Bagh Gardens. These Persian-style gardens, whose translation means moonlight gardens, are possibly the best vantage point from which to enjoy the silhouette of the colossal Taj Mahal.
