

Online-Seminar-Programme

15 May 2024 17:00 – 18:00 CET

A Centre of Excellence –

Exploring IBZ Gimborn, the IPA's Training and Education Centre in Germany

Content:

#sheisipa presents a series of talks, led by May-Britt Ronnebro, exploring the world of women in policing, the IPA, and its wider universe.

Today's talk is with Marie Daly from the IPA Ireland Section and Ulrike Neuhoff, Education Officer at IBZ Castle Gimborn. Both Marie and Ulrike are committed to promoting the IBZ's training and education programme and to promoting the IBZ's ambitious and elaborate seminars within the IPA family. They are passionate about delivering high quality seminars that meet the expectations and needs of police officers. Just as they are passionate about promoting a diverse and inclusive police force.

For participation, please register here:

<https://app.seminarmanagercloud.de/ibz-schloss-gimborn-ev/buchungsportal/exploring-ibz-gimborn-3d4f5b70748543779edceca0ffc62a7e>

Once you have registered for the webinar, the link will be sent to you
We ask IPA members to provide their IPA membership number and the IPA section they belong to.

For further information regarding the seminar and the terms and conditions, please visit our website:
www.ibz-gimborn.de

The Moderator

May-Britt Rinaldo Ronnebro is an expert in Crime Prevention Methods at the Center for Police Science and Development at Linnaeus University, Växjö, Sweden. She is a ret. Superintendent and National Lead on Crime Prevention Education for the Swedish National Police with 46 years' experience of policing in different roles on local, regional, and national level. She is a Fitzwilliam graduate at Cambridge University, England, UK and holds a master's degree in applied criminology and Police Management. In 2015 she developed the Swedish Crime Harm Index for violent crimes against person in public places. May-Britt maintains partnerships with other international associations related to the police profession including the International Education Centre Gimborn, Germany, the London West University/London Policing College, the World Association of Detectives, the International Association of Women Police, and the Society of Evidence Based Policing – UK, and the UNESCO. She is a member of the Policing Insights Advisory Board and the Advisory Board of the Cambridge Police Executive Program.

The Speakers

Marie Daly joined the Irish Police Service, An Garda Síochána in 1984. She served as an operational police officer in Co. Donegal for 11 years before transferring to the Garda College at Templemore, Co Tipperary. After obtaining a Postgraduate in Child Protection and Welfare from Trinity College Dublin, Marie worked on designing and delivering the Specialist Interviewer Training. This training is for Police Officers and Social Workers who interview children and persons with intellectual disability who are alleging crimes against them. Marie retired from An Garda Síochána in 2022.

Marie joined the International Police Association (IPA) in 1984. She was elected to Regional Board at Garda College in 1997 and onto the Irish National Board in 2001. Marie first held the position of National Enrolment Officer for which she was ideally located to enroll trainee Garda into IPA. Marie was elected as 1st Vice President Section Ireland in 2018, with IBZ Gimborn liaison as part of the role. She chairs the cultural commission and the editorial board. Marie has been in the International Professional Commission since 2012. She had worked on the Arthur Troop Scholarship Portfolio and is now on #sheisipa women in IPA portfolio.

Ulrike Neuhoff has been working at IBZ for almost 10 years. She has worked in police training for most of her career. She is passionate about diverse and inclusive police forces that are committed to keeping people safe, protecting their rights, and upholding human rights.

To get involved or find out more information about #sheisipa, please visit the International Police Association website (Women in IPA \(ipa-international.org\)) or contact the team at sheisipa@IEB-IPA.org.